The "French Grand Tour" known by other names now requiring a license to say*, is also known as the most physically challenging athletic competition in the world! It is also arguably one of the best spectacles anywhere! A 3 week rolling party - at least for the fans - brings millions out to cheer on their man and his team.

Our 2007 programs are available for viewing below.

A virtual tour is linked above showing photos from recent tours. Be there to get your own this July!

For 2007, Le Tour will start in London on July 7 and finish in Paris on July 29. The Pyrenees will be the last mountain stages before going to Paris. Our programs will include a time in both the Alpes and in the Pyrenees.

*NOTE: if you seek a quality experience riding the routes of Le Tour, without extra cost, then you have found one of the best offers available right here. Our 13 years experience assure you of a quality trip!
